Editorial Notes:

We are delighted to publish the fourth issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Cultural Studies (JECS), a refereed international journal. As an interdisciplinary academic journal, JECS publishes philosophical, theoretical, and empirical research from all disciplines dealing with ethnicity, identity, culture and multicultural education. Concerned primarily with critical reviews of current research, JECS provides a space for debate regarding concepts and the questions they raise that have potential to influence in a formative manner ethnic and cultural studies. We believe JECS will make a solid contribution to the field of social science and stimulate needed scholarly debate. It will meet the expectations of varied audiences and endure to stimulate new and exciting research in its field. The fourth issue has sixteen excellent papers and a book review from all around the world. We are indebted to our colleagues who have contributed to this issue and to all who support the journal by serving on the editorial boards. We also thank to our anonymous reviewers who have kindly devoted their time and expertise to make this issue possible.

Focus and Scope:

Journal of Ethnic and Cultural Studies (JECS) welcomes original research articles and book reviews for its next issue. The JECS is a quarterly and peer-reviewed journal published in February, May, August, and November. Papers for the publication in the JECS are selected through a precise peer-review process to ensure quality, originality, appropriateness, significance and readability. Authors are solicited to contribute to this journal by the submitting manuscripts that illustrate empirical research, projects, theoretical papers, original surveys, and book reviews dealing with the issues of ethnicity and culture from a wide range of disciplines in Social Sciences and Humanities.

Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement

JECS publishes original and rigorous research findings and does not tolerate any kind of academic dishonesty or misconduct. All manuscripts submitted to JECS should be original works of scholarship. JECS does not tolerate any sort of data fabrication and falsification, plagiarism, and improper author contribution. JECS adheres to the Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement to ensure high-quality publications, public trust in research findings, and that people receive credit for their ideas.
